DEATH PENALTY
FOR MURDERER

Junkin Sentenced Immediately on Return of Verdict.

Negro Killed Clara Rosen Then Dragged Her Into Excavation and Further Assaulted Her.

JURY OUT LESS THAN 4 HOURS

Des Moines, Iowa, June 2.—The negro, John Junkin, last night was found guilty at Centerville, of the murder of Clara Rosen, the Ottumwa choir singer, on February 5 last, and was sentenced to death by Judge Roberts.

The jury returned a verdict after a deliberation of less than four hours. There was an immense crowd awaiting the result of the trial and as the last words were read by the clerk a shout went up which was taken up by the crowd in the court house square.

The attorneys for the defense waived the customary right of three days before sentence of death is passed and agreed that the judge pass the sentence immediately, which the court did. Junkin will hang the last Friday in July, 1910.
He was taken to Fort Madison for safe keeping till the day of execution.

Adjutant General Logan was in the court room when the sentence was pronounced. He stated last night that there would be no need of militia to guard the prisoner as the verdict met with popular favor.

Junkin's crime was one of the most atrocious in Iowa. He confessed to killing Clara Rosen with a stone while she was returning from the home of her sister. Later he dragged the body into an excavation and assaulted her. Her dead body was found by a searching party next morning.

Under the state laws of Iowa the date of hanging must be removed from the date of sentence at least one year. This is for the purpose of granting the defense sufficient time to perfect an appeal to the supreme court.

Junkin Hurried Away.

END OF A RED NOSE

New Flesh-Colored Product That Heals and Hides Skin Imperfec-tions.

A peculiar feature of posam, a new skin discovery, is that it is naturally flesh-colored and contains no grease, so that when used on the face for the complexion, or for pimples, red noses, or any other inflamma-tions, blemishes, or discolorations, its presence cannot be detected. It can thus be applied in the daytime, the natural color of the skin being immediately restored and the actual healing and curing process accomplished in a few days. It can be had of any pharmacist who sells pure drugs.

Gilbert and R. W. Walker & Co.

A REBELLION

Food Demanded.

The human body will stand a lot of abuse but sometime it will surely rebel and demand the proper food in place of the pasty, starchy, greasy stuffs on which it has been made sick.

Then is the time to feed Grape-Nuts, the most scientific and perfect food in the world.

A lady of Washington says:
"Three years ago I was very ill with catarrh of the stomach and was given up to die by one doctor. I laid in bed four months and my stomach was so weak that I could not keep down medicine or hardly any kind of food and was so weak and emaciated after four months of this starvation that my daughter could easily lift me from bed and put me in my chair.

"But weak as my stomach was, it accepted and relished and digested Grape-Nuts without any difficulty the first time that wonderful food was tried.

"My doctor told me to eat Grape-Nuts, which were predigested, and although I felt certain I could not keep the food on my stomach I made the trial and it was a most complete success.

"I am now strong and in better health than for a great many years and am gradually growing still stronger. I rely on Grape-Nuts for the most of the nourishment that I get.

The results have certainly been wonderful in my case and prove that no stomach is so weak it will not digest Grape-Nuts.

"My baby got so fat from feeding on Grape-Nuts I was afraid I would have to stop giving it food to him, but I guess it is a healthy fat for his health is just perfect."

CHICAGO DOCTOR
HELD FOR MURDER

Refuses to Answer on "Advice of Counsel."

Other Woman in Case—Chicago Physician Sent One Flowers While She Was in Hospital.

TOLD HE WAS NOT MARRIED

Chicago, June 2.—Dr. Haldane Cleminson was formally booked for murder here. The complaint was made by Detective Levi Woods of the Rogers Park police station, in which district the alleged murder occurred, and briefly charges the physician with slaying his wife, Mrs.
Nora Jane Cleminson.

The home of the Cleminsons was crowded today when the funeral of Mrs. Cleminson was held. Dr. Clemin-son attended, under police guard, every eye in the room was on him as he silently took his last look at the young woman whose tragic end is laid at his door, but he maintained his composure.

To Examine Stomach.

Deceased's stomach was placed in the hands of experts for chemical examination today by order of Coroner Hoffman, who directed that the first test be made for traces of morphine.
A report on this phase of the case is expected today.

Chief of Detectives O'Brien stated that Cleminson's declaration that his wife had been chloroformed by burglars, and that he himself suffered from the poison, was utterly unworthy of credence.

Money and spoons, which it is alleged the physician said were stolen, were found in a closet in his house.
All attempts to make the prisoner talk failed today. He repeatedly, to O'Brien, refused to answer "on advice of counsel."

Refused to Answer.

"Why did you lie when you told that story about burglars?" O'Brien demanded.

"I refuse to answer on advice of counsel."

"Why did you say chloroform killed her when chloroform had nothing to do with it?"

The prisoner returned the same answer to this, and the request for the name of his lawyer.

Two Other Women.

The discovery of the identity of two women with whom Cleminson, it is said has been on extremely friendly terms for some time past, has led the police to believe they are on the trail of evidence that may show the motive for the murder of Mrs. Cleminson, if she was murdered.

Sent Flowers to Patient.

The woman to whom Dr. Clemin-son frequently sent flowers was discovered to be Miss J. M. Berg, aged 21, who was a patient at the Chicago Union hospital from May 20 to May 26. According to Dr. Seangham, the house physician at the hospital, Clemin-son made almost daily visits to the hospital while Miss Berg was there and left large bunches of flowers each time. It has been impossible to locate Miss Berg at the address on the hospital record.

The other woman is Mae Gray with whom Cleminson roomed for three months prior to his graduation from Mahemann Medical college.
Mrs. Gray spoke freely about her acquaintance with Cleminson. She also added that Cleminson represented himself as being unmarried while he was at her house.

The case has excited the greatest interest in years here owing to the youth and comparative prominence of the principals. After several years of struggling, it is said, the doctor's practice had grown to liberal proportions. Mrs. Cleminson was bright, of affectionate disposition and had many friends.

"A SYLVAN SYMPHONY" AT
WALLACE PARK CASINO.

The first presentation of "A Sylvan Symphony" takes place at the Wallace park casino tonight. The children who are taking part have been carefully rehearsed, the music is bright and catchy and the various stage pictures and chorus movements have been prepared with much care.
All in all, a beautiful entertainment can be expected, and the low price of admission—five cents—should attract a large audience. Because of its peculiar appropriateness, both in title and music, Mrs. Deal is going to render as an entire act number, Mr.
Harry Gilbert's composition, "By Sylvan Paths." This is a most beautiful piece, of more than unusual excellence. Performance will begin tonight at 8:30 and will be concluded before 10 o'clock; and, as the regular band concerts—which take place at the park every night—begin at 7:30, early patrons can enjoy the band music for a while before the entertainment commences.

Battle ship maintenance cost during the past year, found by averaging the cost of the current repairs on seventeen United States battle ships during 1908, amounts to $110,000 per year per ship. This does not include the more extensive repairs or overhauling.

BEVERLY PRICES

SOAR WHEN CAPITAL IS MOVED FOR THE SUMMER.

White House Clerical Force Refuses to Stand "Gaff"—May Go to Boston.

Washington, June 2. (United Press)

The good people of Beverly, Mass., are already boosting their prices in anticipation of the coming of the president. Word comes to Washington that the hotels have doubled their rates, and that the tradespeople generally are preparing to take in money with both hands as soon as the Taft party arrives and the little town becomes the summer capital of the nation. Unfortunately for these plans of golden harvest, Beverly is too near Boston, and the members of the white house clerical force who have been ordered to go to Beverly this summer are now negotiating with hotel managers in the larger city.

"We just simply won't be stung by the Beverlyites," remarked one of the president's clerks. "We are willing enough to pay reasonable rates for room and board for ourselves and families, but when it comes to buying the hotels every week, we sidestep. Three or four weeks ago one of the president's secret service guards made a trip to Beverly to look over the ground and make arrangements for accommodations for the crowd. He found the town as smiling as a basket of chips. Oh, no, the hotel keepers told him, there would be no attempt to hoist prices.
The prices were high enough already they admitted, but the little city was pretty well and they had a perfect right to charge more than ordinary towns. So, they assured the secret service man, they could guarantee that first class board and a suite of rooms could be secured for $17 or $18 a week. The hotels within easy distance of the Evans place, where the Tafts will stop, all rented suites of parlor, bedroom and bath together.
Dear me no, they did not have anything as common as single rooms, but at a pinch they would put two beds in the suites and charge $13 or $14 for them and make a rate of $12 a week apiece for board.
